

First Generation

1. Jean de NOBLET¹ was born in 1394. He died in 1448 at the age of 54. Jean de Noblet is the first of the Noblitt line that can be linked directly, generation by generation to the present family starting with his birth in 1394.

However, there is a record of an earlier line but the direct link is as yet undiscovered.

A Jacques de Noblette who died in 1092 is the actual oldest identified forebearer of the Noblitt family. He established the family estate at Chaisney de Tersillac near Falaise on lands granted by William, Duke of Normandy. Jaques de Noblette married Catherine Framberge in 1068.

Jaques and Catherine had one son Pierre de Noblette. Pierre de Noblette born 1074, died 1156, married Robine Mirebel in 1115. Pierre and Robing had one son Alexander de Noblette.

Alexander de Noblette born 1128, married Marie Velippiere in 1151. Jean de Noblet is a direct descendant of Jaques de Noblette and was still living in the original chateau some 300 years after the royal grant of 1068.

It was Jean de Noblet who renamed the family Chateau from Chaisneys de Tersillac near Falaise to Chaisneys de Taincourt.

FOOTNOTE:

All of the above is documented in a book researched by Loren Noblitt titled "Down the Centuries with the Noblitts" however the link to our John Noblet born 1699 and married to Ann Brereton born 1699 has not been documented to satisfy the purists on Wikilinks.com, so, the info is included in my genealogy until we can locate Peter Noblet born 1671 and ask him if his son was in fact our John Noblet as no records exist that links the two. Wikilinks maintains that if no paper document exists then it is a false narrative and purely speculation.

His so-journ constituted a period of less than thirty years before his four sons decided to migrate to the English Colonies in America. Thirteenth Generation

23. John NOBLET¹ was born in 1699. He died on 24 Aug 1748 at the age of 49 in York County, Pa.. John Noblit is the first person that can be confirmed to be directly connected to this line. There are various books that purport John's father to be Peter Noblet but this has not been documented. The company that prepared the books "Down the Centuries with the Noblitts" and "Noblesse Oblige" reporting that this line goes through Peter Noblet back to Jean de Noblet in the 1300's has been sued for fraud and preparing creative genealogy. This is all being investigated and my genealogy database will begin with this John Noblit until the issue is resolved.

John Noblit was a French Huguenot who left Ireland with Quaker emigrants to settle in Pennsylvania. John came to America with his three brothers Richard, Francis and William. Many ancestors of this family served in the Civil War, some on the side of the Confederacy and some on the side of the Union. Jacob McClellan Noblitt holds the distinction of not only serving in the Civil War but serving on both sides. He was drafted into the Confederate Army while the family was living in Texas and assigned to the cavalry in the area of Ft. Gibson, Indian Territory and then on to Ft. Smith in Arkansas. The Noblitts had never owned slaves and wanted no part of defending this custom. So on April 4th, 1863 the family sold their property in Fannin County and headed up the Texas Road toward Cedar County, Missouri. Somehow, Jacob and his brother Lyma got away from their Confederate units and joined the family in Missouri. Jacob then went across the border into eastern Kansas and joined a Cavalry unit of the Union Army where he served until the end of the war.

Mary Ann NOBLITT and Herschel LeRoy WHITE were married on 21 Apr 1928 in Columbus, Indiana. Herschel LeRoy WHITE¹, son of Irven LeRoy WHITE and Ida Mae WEEKLY, was born on 9 Jan 1910 in Columbus, Indiana. He died on 12 Dec 1976 at the age of 66 in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was buried in Washington Park Cemetery; Indpls, Ind.. Herschel had Social Security Number 304-07-4923. Herschel detested his given name and went by the initials of "H. L." or the nick name of "Whitey" for most of his adult life. Most of his friends and business associates never knew his real name. He worked in sales since he was a small boy, however, his first experience in sales was not a good one. His father, Irven, sold Bibles door to door and often went from Columbus, Indiana to the smaller surrounding towns and spent the day selling house to house. Herschel decided at 14, at the end of his sixth grade that he was ready to quit school and join his father in business. Irven gave him a sample kit, took him to Seymour, Indiana and said, "Knock on every door, sell 'em a Bible and I'll pick you up in time to return home for supper". At 4:00 pm Irven went to the designated spot and no Herschel, Irven drove all over town and still no Herschel. Irven contacted the Seymour police and they searched but were unable to locate him. Irven went back home to see if Herschel had contacted his mother Ida, and there he was, sitting under a tree drinking lemonade in the shade. He had knocked on two doors and when they turned him down he walked the 17 miles back home to Columbus and decided this was not his cup of tea. No record was made of Irven's reaction but he must have given him another chance and it must have worked out better. Herschel never returned to school and he worked his way to top salesman in every field he entered from that time on. He sold Bibles until the depression, he dug ditches for a dollar a day during the worst of the depression and joined the Civilian Conservation Corps when all work dried up in Indiana. He moved to New Lebanon, Ohio and sold milk door to door, first from a horse drawn wagon, then in one of the first milk trucks owned by the Blossom Hill Dairy in New Lebanon. He moved back to Indianapolis, Indiana and sold bread for Colonial Bakery to groceries and restaurants. He worked for a period as a door to door laundry / dry cleaner route man for Lux Laundry, he later became route supervisor for them before leaving to sell tools to garages and filling station mechanics for Snap-On Tools. In each of his endeavors he worked his way from the bottom to positions of middle management. He was up for promotion to District Sales Manager with Snap-on until they discovered that he had only a sixth grade education. When they refused to promote him for that reason he quit and started his own company. He said many times, that it was the best thing that ever happened to him. He enjoyed a great success with White's Tool Company and achieved more personal success and realized more financial comfort than he ever thought possible.

692. Jerry LeRoy WHITE¹ was born on 8 Apr 1936 in Indianapolis, Indiana. He Served in the U. S. Navy on the USS Salem, Flag Ship of the 6th Fleet from 1955 to 1958. Jerry was born at home at 229 N. Drexel Ave. in Indianapolis, Indiana with no one present except he and his mother. His mother Maryann (nee NOBLITT) tells that when she felt the labor pains and knew the birth was near, she sent Betty, Jerry's sister, next door to tell the neighbor to; 1) Call the doctor and tell him "It's time" and he better hurry; 2) Call Jerry's father at work, tell him "It's time to take her to the hospital" and tell him to hurry; and 3) Bring the neighbor back to be with her until help arrived and she better hurry. Everyone was on their way but Jerry got there first. When he was 8 years old in 1944 his Uncle Andy came to visit in his Navy uniform and told of the big ships and vast oceans, Jerry was hooked and said from that time that he would join the Navy and learn a trade just like his Uncle Andy. He joined the Navy after graduating from High School and served from 1955 to 1958 aboard the heavy cruiser USS Salem CA139. He was trained in electronics in the Navy and used that to his advantage throughout his life. He worked for AT&T for almost 30 years in electronics testing and repair, supervision and about half of that career was spent in direct customer sales. He retired from AT&T in 1987. He tried full time retirement but was bored and went to work for Mead Data Central (Lexis/Nexis) as a systems analyst for 5 years before retiring from there in 1994. He again tried full retirement but was bored and went to work in 1995 for the Bellefontaine Examiner Newspaper in Bellefontaine, Ohio as an Advertising Executive and retired from there in December of 1998. This time the retirement appears to be final. Jerry is currently a 32 Degree Scottish Rite Mason, a Knight of the York Rite Masonic Order and a Kentucky Colonel.
