ARE YOU LONESOME TONIGHT

Words and Music by Roy Turk and Lou Handman

INTRO: (A7) (D7) (G)

(G) Are you lonesome tonight, Do you miss me tonight?

Are you sorry we (E7) drifted a (Am) part?

Does your (D7) memory stray, to a bright summer day,

When I kissed you and called you sweet (G) heart?

Do the (G7) chairs in the parlor seem (C) empty and bare?

Do you (A7) gaze at your doorstep and (D7) picture me there?

Is your (G) heart filled with pain, Shall I (A7) come back again?

Tell me (D7) dear, are you lonesome to (G) night?
