

EVERGLADES

Instrumental (D) (G) (A7), (D) (G) (A7), (D) (D)

(D) He was born and raised around (A7) Jacksonville, a nice young man not the (D) kind to kill,

(D) But a jealous pride and a (G) flashing blade, (A7) sent him on the run thru the (D) Everglades.

(A7) Runnin' like a dog thru the (D) Everglades. (D)

(D) Now the posse went in and they (A7) came back out, they said he'll die there (D) ain't no doubt,

It's an eye for an eye so the (G) debt is paid, he (A7) won't last long in the (D) Everglades.

(A7) A man can't live in the (D) Everglades.

(G) Where a man can hide and (D) never be found, and (A7) have no fear of the (D) baying hound,

But he (G) better keep movin' and (D) don't stand still,

if the (A7) skeeters don't get him then the (D) gators will.

Instrumental

(D) Now the years went by and his (A7) girl was wed, his family gave him (D) up for dead,

(D) But now and then the (G) natives would say, (A7) they seen him runnin' thru the (D) Everglades.

(A7) Runnin' like a dog thru the (D) Everglades. (D)

(D) Now he never heard the news on the (A7) radio, he was deep in the 'glades so he'll (D) never know,

(D) His runnin' and hidin' never (G) made much sense, for the (A7) jury had ruled it was (D) self defense.

(A7) Runnin' like a dog thru the (D) Everglades.

(G) Where a man can hide and (D) never be found, and (A7) have no fear of the (D) baying hound,

But he (G) better keep movin' and (D) don't stand still,

if the (A7) skeeters don't get him then the (D) gators will.

(A7) Runnin' like a dog thru the (D) Everglades.

(A7) Slippin' like a frog thru the (D) slimy bog

(A7) Runnin' thru the trees from the (D) Everlyes.

Instrumental (D) (G) (A7),(D) (G) (A7),(D)V
