(E) Far across deep blue waters, lives an (A) old German's daughter,
By the (B) banks of the (B7) old river (E) Rhine.

Where I loved her and left her, But (A) I can't forget her,

(B) I miss my (B7) pretty frau (E) lein.

(E) Fraulein, Fraulein, look (A) up toward the heaven,

Each (B) night when the (B7) stars start to (E) shine.

By the same stars above you, I (A) swear that I love you,

(B) You are my (B7) pretty frau (E) lein.

(E) When my memories wander, a (A) way over yonder,

To the (B) sweetheart that (B7) I left be (E) hind.

In a moment of Glory, a (A) face comes before me,

The (B) face of my (B7) pretty frau (E) lein.

(E) Fraulein, fraulein, walk (A) down by the river,

Pre (B) tend that you (B7) hand's holding (E) mine.

By the same stars above you, I (A) swear that I love you,

(B) You are my (B7) pretty frau (E) lein.

(B) You are my (B7) pretty frau (E) lein.
