

FIRST GENERATION

1. William WHITE<sup>1</sup> was born in 1715 in Baileyscuhy, Antrim, Ireland. He died in Oct 1803 at the age of 88. Little is know about this William White in Ireland or England and was only identified through a family Bible. The only thing known for sure is that his son William Joseph White was the first of this family to arrive in the United States.

William WHITE and Mary Ann JONES were married in 1734 in Downton, Wiltshire, England. Mary Ann JONES<sup>1</sup> was born in 1716.

William WHITE and Mary Ann JONES had the following children:

- 2      i. Martha WHITE<sup>1</sup> was born in 1752. She died in 1793 at the age of 41.
- +3     ii. William Joseph WHITE, born 3 Aug 1758, Ireland; married Elizabeth HINE, 1775; died 15 Nov 1811, North Carolina.

SECOND GENERATION

3. William Joseph WHITE<sup>1</sup> was born on 3 Aug 1758 in Ireland. He died on 15 Nov 1811 at the age of 53 in North Carolina. Wm Joseph White was born in Ireland and arrived in Charleston SC in 1767.

The first settlers in North West North Carolina of the family WHITE were mostly Scotch - Irish emigrants that landed in Pennsylvania, and after tarrying a short time there, or in Maryland, they found their way to North Carolina. Three brothers arrived in the early 1700's, Wm. White and his two brothers James and Archibald. They first settled in the Rocky River area in Mecklenburg County. They were a poor clanish people who strong heartedly adopted their new State and openly resisted the influence and taxation from the Governor appointed by the King of England. History records that a rebellion was formed and executed in 1771 to disrupt a convoy of three wagons loaded with powder destined for the army of William Tryon, the Royal Governor, who was preparing to put down this small band of "Regulators". A dozen or so men, faces blackened so that they would not be recognized, blew up the powder train in the area around Rocky River, North Carolina. Of the group were; James, William and John White, three brothers and sons of James White; and William White, a cousin of theirs. The Governor sent a General Waddel to crush the rebellion and arrest the mob, but Gen. Waddel refused to harm his fellow North Carolinians and most of the gang members fled to the north of the state into Guilford County. Only the signing of the Declaration of Independence relieved the men of further apprehension. If "our" William was involved or was related to those involved is still being investigated but the event has been included in this document if for no other reason than to show the history and activity in the area at the time our William was making his presence know in Stokes County, North Carolina.

William Joseph WHITE and Elizabeth HINE were married in 1775. Elizabeth HINE<sup>1</sup> was born about 1760. She died about 1821 at the age of 61.

William Joseph WHITE and Elizabeth HINE had the following children:

- +4      i. Burgess WHITE, born bet 1775 and 1783; married Regina CRATER, 3 Dec 1842, Stokes County, NC.
- +5      ii. John Thomas WHITE Sr., born 3 Jun 1776; married Elisabeth WILLIAMSON, 1796; died 20 Mar 1863, Davidson County, NC.
- +6      iii. Andrew L. WHITE, born 1783, Granville County, NC; died bef 1864, Forsyth Co., North Carolina.
- 7       iv. Stephen WHITE<sup>1</sup> was born between 1800 and 1810.
- 8       v. William WHITE<sup>1</sup> was born about 1805. He died on 19 Aug 1872 at the age of 67 in Stokes County, NC.
- +9      vi. Charles WHITE, born abt 1805; married Deborah WILSON, 25 Feb 1837, Davidson County, North Carolina, United States.

THIRD GENERATION

4. Burgess WHITE<sup>1</sup> was born between 1775 and 1783.

John Thomas WHITE Sr. and Elisabeth WILLIAMSON were married in 1796. Elisabeth WILLIAMSON<sup>1</sup> No further information.

6. Andrew L. WHITE<sup>1</sup> was born in 1783 in Granville County, NC. He died before 1864 at the age of 81 in Forsyth Co., North Carolina. The only documented information on Andrew, other than North Carolina Census records, was a comment published in the Moravian Elders Conference minutes of January 9th, 1839 when William H. White applied for permission to seek employment at the community shoemaker facility. The record states that William's father is "presently employed at the community cotton factory". The record also indicates that the Salem cotton factory started operation in 1837.

Andrew appears in the 1850 North Carolina Census for Forsyth County. The family listing is Andrew age 63, Frances (Fanny) age 58, Margaret 18 and Rebecca 16. They are both listed as being born in North Carolina and his occupation is listed as "Farmer". It is interesting to note that in the 1850 Census Andrew L., His parents and John Henry White Sr. are living in three houses side by side. Andrew is not listed in the 1860 North Carolina Census records nor is he listed in the Indiana 1860 Census. This could mean that he died prior to the Census or relocated to some other state. If he had died Frances should be listed as head of household but she is also not listed in either census record.

The Death Notice for Andrew's son Tandy J. dated July 6, 1864 states that Tandy leaves behind his wife and his widowed mother. This would indicate that Andrew died sometime prior to 1864.

There is an Andrew J. White from NC as born in 1787 and died in 1861 while fighting in the Civil War... Still investigating.

White child of John Henry White and Elizabeth Hartman. In the 1850 Census John Henry White Sr. was living next door to Andrew L. White and his parents.

He was buried in Moravian Cemetary; West Salem, Illinois. William was received as a member of the Moravian Congregation by baptism in 1843. William H. J. (age 34); wife Luzetta C. (age 33); sons Amos Benjamin (age 1) and George H. (age 4); and daughter, Emily Cornealia (age 5) were listed in the 1850 census as residents of Davidson County, North Carolina. William's occupation was listed as shoemaker and their property was owned with a listed value of $200. William and his wife were both listed as being born in North Carolina. Both of their fathers were listed as being born in Pennsylvania. Sometime after the 1850 census, William loaded his young family into a wagon and headed North through Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois. William caught the "fever" on the trip from Hope Indiana to the Moravian community in Salem Illinois. William died shortly after arrival in Salem. Lisetta left Salem after Williams death to return to family in Hope Indiana.

William Henry Jerome WHITE and Lisetta Cornealia BEITEL were married on 27 Sep 1843 in North Carolina. Lisetta Cornealia BEITEL<sup>1</sup>, daughter of Frederick Wilhelm BEITEL and Maria Magdalena FREY, was born on 13 Feb 1820 in Christiansbrunn, PA (Northhampton Co.). She died in 1899 at the age of 79 in Hope, Indiana. She was buried in Moravian Cemetary; Hope, Indiana. Lisetta's birthplace of Christianbrunn means "Christian's Spring" and is better known in Pennsylvania as Christian Springs. It was located in Upper Nazareth Township, in Northampton County near where Nazareth, Pennsylvania is today. Lisetta died in Hope, Indiana and was buried in the Moravian Cemetery there. Lisette came from very good stock. Her family started in this country in the person of Johann Martin FREY who came to the U.S. on the ship "Myrtilla" on Sept. 21, 1765. His lineage to Lisetta is as follows:

Johann Martin FREY married Maria Magdalena SCHERER. children; John FREY born Jul 28, 1781 and Maria Magdalena FREY born Mar 7, 1788.

Maria Magdalena FREY married Wilhelm Fredrich BEITEL. children; Lisette Cornealia BEITEL

The Beitel's and Frey's were listed in the congregational records for the Moravian Church in the Northern Jurisdiction in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Records have been found with the spelling of Lisetta's surname to be Beitle, Beitel, Bytel, Bietel and Beittel. Lisetta has been spelled as Lucetta, Lisita and Luzetta.

When William died in August of 1856, Lisetta must have been one or two months pregnant (the infant was born March of 1857). The pregnant Lisetta loaded up the children, Emily was 11, George was 10 and Amos was 7, and headed back to Hope, Indiana where the infant was born on March 8th 1857. The baby only lived two days and was buried in the Moravian Cemetery in Hope, Indiana. Lisetta was listed in the 1860 Indiana Census as age 40, born in Pennsylvania and occupation as Seamstress with Emily C. age 14, George H. age 12, Amos B. age 10 all born in North Carolina and Mary F. age 5 born in Illinois. She was listed in the 1870 Indiana Census for Bartholomew County as Lizetta age 50 born in Pennsylvania with son Amos age 20 born in North Carolina, occupation listed as Loom Boss, and Mary age 15 born in Illinois and listed as attending school. Little else is know of Lisetta from 1857 until she married Nathaniel Thomas Fetter in 1871. This is the same Nathaniel T. Fetter that witnessed the marriage bond for William and Lisetta back in 1843. It is not known if he was with them on the trip from North Carolina, if he had left earlier or if he came later. Sometime prior to the marriage to Mr. Fetter, a new brick home was constructed for Lisetta in Hope, Indiana and a brick mason was hired by the family to lay the brick. The brick mason was Benjamin Keller from Cincinnati, Ohio. The story as told by Lisetta's great grandson, Andrew Benjamin White, is that while Benjamin was working on the new home, he fell in love with Lisetta's daughter Emily and they were wed in late 1863. When Ben came to work he often brought his younger sister Mary Anna Keller along with him. During the course of construction Lisetta's son Amos and Mary Anna fell in love, they continued their courtship and were wed in early 1874.

"or the nick name of Whitey" for most of his adult life. Most of his friends and business associates never knew his real name. He worked in sales since he was a small boy, however, his first experience in sales was not a good one. His father, Irven, sold Bibles door to door and often went from Columbus, Indiana to the smaller surrounding towns and spent the day selling house to house. Herschel decided at 14, at the end of his sixth grade that he was ready to quit school and join his father in business. Irven gave him a sample kit, took him to Seymour, Indiana and said, "Knock on every door, sell 'em a Bible and I'll pick you up in time to return home for supper". At 4:00 pm Irven went to the designated spot and no Herschel, Irven drove all over town and still no Herschel. Irven contacted the Seymour police and they searched but were unable to locate him. Irven went back home to see if Herschel had contacted his mother Ida, and there he was, sitting under a tree drinking lemonade in the shade. He had knocked on two doors and when they turned him down he walked the 17 miles back home to Columbus and decided this was not his cup of tea. No record was made of Irven's reaction but he must have given him another chance and it must have worked out better. Herschel never returned to school and he worked his way to top salesman in every field he entered from that time on. He sold Bibles until the depression, he dug ditches for a dollar a day during the worst of the depression and joined the Civilian Conservation Corps when all work dried up in Indiana. He moved to New Lebanon, Ohio and sold milk door to door, first from a horse drawn wagon, then in one of the first milk trucks owned by the Blossom Hill Dairy in New Lebanon. He moved back to Indianapolis, Indiana and sold bread for Colonial Bakery to groceries and restaurants. He worked for a period as a door to door laundry / dry cleaner route man for Lux Laundry, he later became route supervisor for them before leaving to sell tools to garages and filling station mechanics for Snap-On Tools. In each of his endeavors he worked his way from the bottom to positions of middle management. He was up for promotion to District Sales Manager with Snap-on until they discovered that he had only a sixth grade education. When they refused to promote him for that reason he quit and started his own company. He said many times, that it was the best thing that ever happened to him. He enjoyed a great success with White's Tool Company and achieved more personal success and realized more financial comfort than he ever thought possible.

Jerry was born at home at 229 N. Drexel Ave. in Indianapolis, Indiana with no one present except he and his mother. His mother Maryann (nee NOBLITT) tells that when she felt the labor pains and knew the birth was near, she sent Betty, Jerry's sister, next door to tell the neighbor to; 1) Call the doctor and tell him "It's time" and he better hurry; 2) Call Jerry's father at work, tell him "It's time to take her to the hospital" and tell him to hurry; and 3) Bring the neighbor back to be with her until help arrived and she better hurry. Everyone was on their way but Jerry got there first. When he was 8 years old in 1944 his Uncle Andy came to visit in his Navy uniform and told of the big ships and vast oceans, Jerry was hooked and said from that time that he would join the Navy and learn a trade just like his Uncle Andy. He joined the Navy after graduating from High School and served from 1955 to 1958 aboard the heavy cruiser USS Salem CA139. He was trained in electronics in the Navy and used that to his advantage throughout his life. He worked for AT&T for almost 30 years in electronics testing and repair, supervision and about half of that career was spent in direct customer sales. He retired from AT&T in 1987. He tried full time retirement but was bored and went to work for Mead Data Central (Lexis/Nexis) as a systems analyst for 5 years before retiring from there in 1994. He again tried full retirement but was bored and went to work in 1995 for the Bellefontaine Examiner Newspaper in Bellefontaine, Ohio as an Advertising Executive and retired from there in December of 1998. This time retirement appears to be final. Jerry is currently a 32 Degree Scottish Rite Mason, a Knight of the York Rite Masonic Order and a Kentucky Colonel.

Jerry had no formal training in music but when he and his wife Sandee moved to Sun City Hilton Head he started a music group called the Sun City Strummers. They consisted mainly of guitars, ukuleles, mandolins and banjos performing for Sun City Clubs, Assisted Living and Senior facilities in the area. In 2017 he started a Ukulele Band which currently has over 40 members performing for the same clubs and facilities as above plus many events in the surrounding communities.
