(C) Ay ay ay (G7) ay Ay ay ay (C) ay
(C) Ay ay ay (G7) ay Ay ay ay (C) ay

South of the (C) Border, down (G7) Mexico (C) way.
(C) That's where I fell in love when the (Em) stars above,
came (G7) out to play.
And now I (C) wander, (C7) my thoughts ever (F) stray,
South of the (C) Border, (G7) down Mexico (C) way.

She was a (C) vision in old (G7) spanish (C) lace.
(C) And for a tender while, I (Em) kissed the smile,
up (G7) on her face.
For it was (C) fiesta (C7) and we were so (F) gay.
South of the (C) Border, (G7) down Mexico (C) way.

(C) Ay ay ay (G7) ay Ay ay ay (C) ay
(C) Ay ay ay (G7) ay Ay ay ay (C) ay

(C) Then she smiled and whispered (G7) manana,
Never dreaming that we were part (C) ing,
And I lied as I (C7) whispered man (F) ana,
For our (C) tomorrow (G7) never (C) came.

South of the (C) Border, I rode (G7) back one (C) day,
(C) There in a veil of white, by (Em) the candle light,
she (G7) knelt to pray.
The mission bells (C) told me (C7) that I musn't (F) stay.
South of the (C) Border, (G7) down Mexico (C) way.
